The Sophomore Representatives (opposite page, bottom right) were Lisa Kean and Bill Mackey. The Freshmen Representatives (opposite page, top) were Lisa McLaughlin and Darrin Zisler

Queen Koren Edwards and King Mike Vinckier.

1980

Yale's 1980 Homecoming featured the very first Queen and King. They were Doris Pochodylo, 1946 Queen, and Bob Minnie, 1947 King.

Our Homecoming theme was Movie Greats. Seniors showed their spirit by winning the coveted "Spirit Jug." The Juniors won the float competition using "Jaws" as their movie theme.

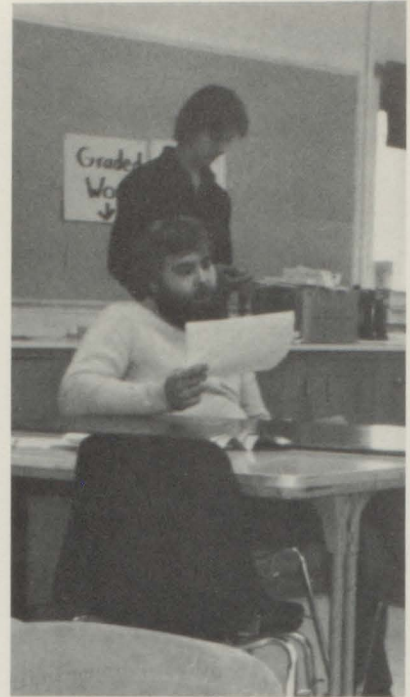

The parade led by the marching band began at the south end of town and continued to the park. The football game is always a Homecoming hi-light, and this year we played the New Haven Rockets. Yale lost 14-12, but they played very well and gave our fans an effort that made us all very proud.

Half-time activities were filled with excitement as the King and Queen delegates marched up the field. Then a hush came over the crowd and the tension grew; Mr. Dams announced Yale's 1980 Queen and King, Koren Edwards and Mike Vinckier. Led by the Majorettes, the band put on a sparkling half-time show using the "Rainbow Connection" from the Muppet movie as their theme. The day was concluded with a dance held in the High School gym with live music provided by the band "Dazzler."

YALE HIGH FIGHT SONG

Sail on, for dear Yale High
 The blue & white shall win or die,
 and every man in every way,
 shall fight to make this our team's fray
 So we will cheer you through and through,
 As every loyal rooter should do,
 So fight you Y-A-L-E to the end,
 Our mighty honor to ascend.

Tony Wright
All-League First Team

The Yale Golf team ended a very successful season with a 14-9 record. The Bulldogs took fourth place in the league with a 10-8 record.

This year's team was a very young one with three Freshmen and three Sophomores, and only two Seniors.

Tony Wright, the team's leading golfer, made the first team all-league for the second year in a row. Freshmen Tracy Stanyer was selected to the second team.

With a lot of hard work this summer the Bulldogs should be a much improved team next season, maybe even a championship.

J.V.'S ARE WINNERS

Front: Steve Frenette, Steve Covert, Dave Wampler, Chris Yurko, Ron Charney, Chris Jasmer, Todd Desloover, Larry Kraft, Larry Cowhy, George Ingles. Yale's J.V. football team worked for and achieved a fine football season. Led by many dedicated and experienced sophomores, the team enjoyed a 5-4 campaign—the best in the last 4 years. Throughout the season they proved themselves as strong as any team they played; only their inconsistency cost them a finer record. Their finest effort came against a strong Armada team which hadn't been beaten in 2 years. Though they had lost previously to the Tigers, 42-18, the J.V.'s bore down and punished them 16-0. With an offense that could explode at any time and a defense that provided 3 shutouts, the team provided many thrilling games. Next year looks bright for these freshmen and sophomores whose winning attitude was a credit to the school.

Coach Linda Florine says the girls improved tremendously over the season and played with enthusiasm and spirit throughout the year.

Rita Jonassen of Hammerfest, Norway, attended Yale High School this year as an exchange student. She stayed with the Mitch and Laura Robinson family on LaSalle St., Yale.

Rita, an 18-year old student who had studied English in her homeland for five years, speaks our language very fluently and plans to continue her study of languages with an eye toward becoming an airline flight attendant.

Her hometown of Hammerfest is the "world's northernmost town" and is a year-round fishing port of 8,000 population. Her father owns two fishing ships and her mother is employed at Findus, the canning factory.

At home in Norway there are three sisters and one brother. Two of her sisters are older, 32 and 28 years old. Her brother is 16 and younger sister is 15.

IN MEMORIAM

LISA'S GONE

If you knew her
You would like her,
For she brought sunshine
Into your life.
She never once put you down.
Her love shown through town.
She was so very special
In her own way.
I didn't want her to go,
I wanted her to stay.
But the Lord said
It was her time.
Now we sit remembering
All the good times we shared.
She wouldn't have wanted
us to be down.
I must do my job and carry on the way
She would have wanted it.
I will spread the gospel
With her in mind.
For she is my very special friend
And there will always be A place for her in my heart.

Lisa Michelle Cletcher
Freshman

The 1981 yearbook staff dedicates this yearbook to the memory of Lisa Michelle Cletcher a fellow student, classmate and friend.

Then into His hand went mine.
And into my heart came He.
And I walk in a light devine.
The path I had feared to see.
